Docket No. 23-CV-02848

John Durkee Executor of
The Kenneth H. Blaisdell, JR.
Plaintiff

V.

Trini Brassard, Courtney Brassard,
Brian Falzo, Daniel Brassard, Brassard
Sugarworks and Maple Supply LLC,
Defendants

Please consider this additional information as you review the filings by Elizabeth Willhite. I believe these will help clarify some of her documents.

In response to the "Affidavit of Elizabeth Willhite" dated August 13, 2025, I offer the following to help with items identified.

#4 I did forget to add one email when sending and it happens to be Elizabeth's however, the lead attorney in her firm did receive the email.

#5 The Dropbox link provided to them has all the documents in it. This was provided in the same manner which I was given the instructions.

#7 See #4. In addition, the link provided to them has always been consistent.

#8 The documents provided are copies of what I received from the bank. In comparing the electronic file provided to the Plaintiff with copies of what they have submitted to the court, it appears the version submitted is blurry compared to the ones they have access to. Exhibit A – page marked Exhibit 5 is what was filed by Plaintiff, second page is what was printed from the record provided to Plaintiff. When the electronic file provided through Dropbox is opened it also allows the user to increase the size of the image which shows the details of the check.

#9 True

#10 In the documents provided, there are deposit slips along with checks written that were produced by me to the Plaintiff. See Exhibit B for one of many examples that were included on July 20, 2025. Note Bates numbers DB00996 – DB00999 from the production of documents on June 5, 2025.

#11 The documents produced on July 24, 2025 are the same items provided prior with new bates numbers. The bank was asked to produce another copy with checks on a separate page this time.

#12 The documents speak for themselves; I turned over what I was given by the bank each time records were produced. For the example provided by Plaintiff, all checks on that page were produced with the follow up on July 24, 2025. See Exhibit C – Bates numbers DB20001 – DB20004 are the checks that were included on the original single page.

#13 Documents speak for themselves

#14 The Plaintiff was given copies of the checks written from my Grandfather's accounts back in 2022 when they were requested, other than that the documents speak for themselves.

#15 Checks from Brassard Construction are irrelevant however they were produced to satisfy the plaintiffs' counsel on July 24.

#16 Documents speak for themselves, I provided what was provided from the bank. Again, claims they are not legible are false. The copy from the bank was not in large print the first time it was provided but it could be read as shown in Exhibit A.

#17 Different bates numbers were used in hopes of no confusion but it looks like that didn't work, other than that the documents speak for themselves. All checks that were specifically requested in letter from Plaintiff on July 11, 2025.

#18 I have no communication from them trying to "Confer" with me since the "unredacted" versions were produced.

In response to "Plaintiffs reply to Defendant Dan Brassard opposition to Plaintiffs motion for sanctions"

#1 Documents were produced above and beyond their request. Dropbox access was given to the lead attorney in this case, Rich Windish. The documents produced on July 20, 2025, speak for themselves.

#2 Brassard Sugarworks and Maple Supply LLC bank records were never formally requested but have been provided. Brassard Self Storage LLC is not a part of this civil suit I produced everything the bank gave me. The documents speak for themselves. Deposit slips are included in the production. See Exhibit B

#3 Every bates number that was requested from the Plaintiffs July 11, 2025, letter was produced by the bank and was turned over to plaintiffs on July 24, 2025. I have produced what I have in my possession and what I paid for from my banks. See Exhibit C that shows checks were produced for the example the Plaintiff chose in their filing.

#4 There was no intentional act here and I resent the implication that there was.

Conclusion

The Plaintiff seems to not be able to grasp the fact that I have produced the records provided by the bank. During a mediation preparation phone conference another defendant's lawyer simply stated, "that's what the bank provided" and the Plaintiff advised if they confirmed this, they would accept the response that this was all the documents available. This shows that simply because I'm navigating this whole situation Pro-Se they seem to want to continue to bully me and push me around and when there's a little push back, they fire off the filings. I ask the court look over the exhibits provided and deny their request for sanctions so this case can move closer to settlement or trial and after four years my family can find closure.
